

In response to the following:

Advocates of a new broadcast service known as Low Power FM (LPFM) are proposing to expand this service in a way that would allow the new LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service. We are bringing this to your attention because K-LOVE is a national and regional broadcaster with many local FM translators used to bring the Positive & Encouraging K-LOVE signal to communities across the nation. What this means to you is that you may lose your local K-LOVE FM Radio service!

As an avid K-LOVE listener, I am extremely distressed to hear the above. I just found out today that the other Christian station in the Chicago area is going off the air. K-LOVE will be all we have left. As the mother of young children, K-LOVE is the only station I'm comfortable playing in the car with my children around. The music is safe, positive, and encouraging. My children aren't "accidentally" exposed to inappropriate lyrics. I know so many other parents who get frustrated at the lyrics on other stations. K-LOVE gives us an alternative, something we can enjoy with our children without having to explain what certain unmentionable words mean. We don't need any more radio stations with crude humor and offensive lyrics. We need somewhere safe, and that is what K-LOVE offers. I sincerely hope you will not cause us to lose the one station we have left. Thank you.
